

WELDING

Mt. SAC's Welding Program is a comprehensive education and training program designed to give students the skills and knowledge necessary to obtain employment in a variety of industries related to Welding and Fabrication. Mt. SAC Welding students are currently working in construction, aerospace, lighting, and automotive aftermarket industries.

Select options in left navigation for information about individual programs.

Vocational Programs Website (<http://www.mtsac.edu/continuinged/noncredit/vocational/>)