

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CERTIFICATION

The Domestic Violence certificate is an overview of the history, law, and psychology of domestic violence and its ramifications. The program explores the cultural and social aspects of domestic violence, as well as the relationship between domestic violence and substance abuse.

Select options in left navigation for information about individual programs.