

FIRE OFFICER CERTIFICATION (CERTIFICATE E0381)

Technology and Health Division

Certificate E0381

The Fire Officer Certificate is intended for in-service firefighters preparing for promotion. It meets the prerequisite educational requirements for fire officer promotional exams.

Required Courses

| Course Prefix | Course Name | Units |
|--------------------|--|-----------|
| FIRE 100 | Company Officer 2C: Fire Inspections and Investigations | 2 |
| FIRE 101 | Company Officer 2D: All Risk Command Operations | 2 |
| FIRE 102 | Company Officer 2B: General Administrative Functions | 1 |
| FIRE 103 | Company Officer 2E: Wildland Incident Operations | 2 |
| FIRE 104 | Instructional Methodology | 2 |
| FIRE 107 | Company Officer 2A: Human Resource Management for Company Officers | 2 |
| FIRE 108 | ICS 300: Advance Incident Command | 1 |
| Total Units | | 12 |

The Fire Officer Certification program is a Regionally Accredited Training Program (ARTP). The Office of the State Fire Marshall (OSFM) has a responsibility for accreditation of ARTP's throughout the State of California. An ARTP shall provide the following delivery components:

1. California Fire Service Training and Education System (CFSTES)
2. California Fire Service Training and Education Program (FSTEP)
3. Fire Incident Command Certification System (CICCS)
4. California Community College Chancellor's Office Standard Fire Technology Degree Core Program

Contact:

Office of the State Fire Marshall
1131 S. Street
Sacramento, CA 95811
(916) 445-8200

Program Learning Outcomes

Review Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) (<http://www.mtsac.edu/instruction/outcomes/sloinfo.html>) for this program.