

ILLUSTRATION

The Illustration program expands your visual communication skills while providing valuable insight into what it takes to become a Commercial Artist. Our Illustration courses focus on narrative storytelling, composition, and the traditional and digital skills necessary for employment opportunities in the field of Illustration and the entertainment arts or transfer to a university.