

LIBRARY TECHNOLOGY

This comprehensive program equips students with the essential skills and knowledge needed to thrive as library assistants, library technicians, and library support staff. With a focus on practical application combined with library principles, graduates emerge ready to excel in public, academic, school, and special libraries, and other information-related industries. The program provides students with skills in library operations, public service, library collections including print and electronic resources, technology, and workplace communication.