

MUSEUM AND ART GALLERY: EXHIBITION, DESIGN, AND OPERATION

This certificate is designed to introduce students to skills and theory related to museum studies and art gallery entry-level occupations, for vocational purposes. Upon completion of the certificate, the student is prepared to complete entry-level tasks with an understanding of the various perspectives of an exhibition team and administrative positions, including the artist, the director and curator, preparators, art handlers and installers, lighting, graphic design within the museum and gallery, and marketing and public relations.